

PRESS RELEASE

October 2020

New York, NY

In the Cool of the Evening

October 30th - December 30th, 2020

In the Cool of the Evening is an exhibition that celebrates the ideals behind the long celebrated pagan holiday of All Hallows' Eve in a time when celebration must remain socially and physically distanced. The included artists have been chosen due to their exploration of themes often associated with the holiday such as mystery, elevated spirituality, and a complicated history with the occult.

The exhibition is a group show curated by the founders of Project Gallery V, Cary Hulbert and Trinity Lester, as the inaugural exhibition for the project throughout its year long duration. Overall, the exhibition includes 19 pieces of work including prints, paintings, mixed media work, and more. Artists in the show include: Nathan Catlin, Trenton Doyle Hancock, Cara Lynch, Erica Mao, Lina Puerta, Jennifer Schmidt, Kiki Smith, and Craig Zammiello.

Project Gallery V, established in September of 2020 by Cary Hulbert and Trinity Lester, is a year long online project geared towards providing a virtual space for emerging artists to exhibit alongside prints editioned by professional shops. We are committed to breaking down the arbitrary boundaries between artistic practices and supporting artists in every part of their professional creative career.

Project Gallery V

www.projectgalleryv.com

projectgalleryv@gmail.com